

GROWING THE KINGDOM OF GOD

The Fourth Biennial School Chaplaincy
Conference

Liverpool Hope University

Wednesday 21st - Friday 23rd June 2017

This major international and ecumenical conference is for all involved with school chaplaincy - lay or ordained chaplains - pastoral leaders, diocesan education and youth officers, as well as policy makers interested in this vital growth area of Christian ministry.

Keynote speakers include

- Prof. Robert Beckford (Professor in theology at Canterbury Christ Church University and documentary maker)
 - Dr. Paula Gooder (Theologian in Residence, the Bible Society)
 - Jan Graffius (Curator, Stonyhurst College)
 - Prof. Gerald Pillay (Vice Chancellor, Liverpool Hope University)
- Plus - Paul Barber (Director, Catholic Education Service)
- Nigel Genders (CE Chief Education Officer)

Extensive opportunities for

- time and space to reflect and to participate in worship with expert liturgists and preachers
- informal networking, the sharing of ideas and a theatre experience
- over 20 seminars on topics requested by delegates to support them in a myriad of school contexts including adolescent mental health, Christian apologetics, spirituality, science and faith, bereavement, Taizé - schools and pilgrimage, mindfulness, relationships with colleagues and many more.

The three-day conference fee is £375, inclusive of en-suite accommodation, all meals (including the conference dinner) and refreshments. Members of the sponsor organisations receive a £50 discount. Delegates should also be eligible for CPD/CME funding from training budgets. Don't delay: visit www.scala.uk.net to complete your conference booking and payment details.

SCALA

School Chaplains and Leaders Association

